1. Subsequent checking of THERMOT/3 records while he was located at FORTINEL reveals that $160.00 was turned over by him and deposited in his personal account in December 1973. However, at the time of his departure he had a credit balance of only eleven cents. His balance in December 1973 was $165.75 but during the month of January he expended $118.97 and in the few days he was there in February 1974 he further expended $54.47.

2. The cases of TERROWITZ/3 and Blomquist/19 (para 3, reference) are entirely different since the records show that the latter had a balance of $436.42 to his credit at the time of his departure.

3. In view of the above, there is no justification for reimbursing ~~200000/3~~ the $160.00 in question. However, if the station feels that for security or other reasons it would be advisable to make some financial settlement with him just prior to his migration, please advise.
